Trams run major routes along the foreshore and into the hilly heights in a city where quaint wooden houses contrast sharply with the sophistication of modern skyscrapers. Overnight at San Francisco.

Day 2: San Francisco

Drive to the 'City by the Bay' in sunny California. San Francisco is a city which the locals are fiercely proud of and for good reason. There's plenty to keep you entertained but the best introduction is to jump on a hop-on-hop-off bus tour or book one of our 'Urban Adventures' around the city. No trip to San Francisco is complete without a visit to Alcatraz, so enjoy a bay cruise in the evening to explore the dark side of Frisco. Overnight at San Francisco.

Day 3: San Francisco • Yosemite National Park

After a brief fling with San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge, hit the old prospectors' trail to the east into Yosemite National Park. There's some memorable eye candy around here, from huge granite cliffs and the chiseled landmarks of El Capitan and Half Dome to the highest waterfalls in North America. Yosemite is also home to some of the oldest trees in the world, the mighty Giant Sequoias which tower above the park, and let's not forget the unbelievable array of incredible wildlife, from bears to coyotes. Drive up to Glacier Point, the most impressive view point in the park. From here you can marvel at the valley as well as the impressive walls of Half Dome. There are three very different walks offered at this point each varying in difficulty; two of them descend into the valley while the third traces the rim of the valley.
